

An Awareness programme on technologies developed by ICAR-NRC on Yak -Cum- distribution of inputs for tribal farmers conducted at Nyukmaduang village, West Kameng on 17th March 2022

An Awareness programme on technologies developed by ICAR-NRC on Yak – Cum- distribution of inputs for tribal farmers was conducted at Nyukmaduang village, West Kameng on 17th March 2022 under the STC (2021-22) of ICAR-NRC on Yak, Dirang.

The programme was chaired by Sonam Eton, GPC, Nyukmadung. The resource person during the course of the programme briefed the participants about the varied technologies developed by ICAR-NRC on Yak and the progress made by the institute over the years, while also highlighting on the future plans of the institute to uplift the socio-economic status of the farmers through the different components especially STC under which the programme was organized.

The programme benefitted thirty- three tribal farmers in terms of knowledge and distribution of inputs which included common salt and mineral mixture for the animals, and gum boot for promoting hygiene during handling of animals by the livestock farmers.

Registration and verification of the details of the tribal farmers attending the programme

Chairperson of the programme briefing the farmers about the programme

The resource person highlighting about the theme of the programme to the farmers present