

ICAR-NINFET in collaboration with ICAR-NRC on Yak organized one day workshop on Scope of Entrepreneurship Development in Yak Based Products

Dirang, November 16, 2021:

ICAR-National Institute of Natural Fibre Engineering and Technology, Kolkata in collaboration with ICAR-National Research Centre on Yak organized an one day workshop on “Scope of Entrepreneurship Development in Yak Based Products” at Dirang on November 16, 2021.

Dr. M. Sarkar, Director of ICAR-NRC on Yak welcomed all the participants and briefed about the workshop. Dr. A. N. Roy, PS, ICAR-NINFET addressed the participants and told about the scope of Yak fibre. Dr. D. Medhi, PS, ICAR-NRCY coordinated the programme.

In the technical session there was three lectures delivered followed by an interactive session. In the first lecture Dr. Medhi told about the scope for entrepreneurship prospective of the technologies of ICAR-NRC on Yak. After interactive session Dr. A. N. Roy, PS, ICAR-NINFET enlightened the participants through his lecture on product development in Yak fibre –present scenario. The third lecture was given by Dr. A. N. Roy on Entrepreneurship Development in Yak fibre- way forward. The participants were very much interested in interactive session. The showcasing of technologies & hands on practical was carried out in post lunch session in the laboratory of the Institute.

Seventy (70) participants including two Development Officer of Textile & Handicrafts were participated in the workshop.

